An Introduction to the Demonic World

A. Demons are not to be feared

1. Nothing of the enemy shall by any means hurt you. — Luke 10:19
2. At the Name of Jesus, every knee shall bow. — Phil 2:10

B. Demons are everywhere

1. There is one bad angel for every two good angels. — Rev 12:4,9
2. Temptations, fiery darts, are voices of demons — Eph 6:16

C. Demons are in people

1. Seven sons of Sceva. — Acts 19:13-16
2. In My Name, cast out demons. — Matt 10:8

D. Demons are in Christians

1. Simon. — Acts 8:5-23
2. Engrafted Word delivers your soul. — James 1:21
3. Christians need deliverance from snares of the devil — 2 Tim 2:20-26 for they have been taken captive by him.

E. Demons are in you

1. You were born in sin, not with sin. — Psalm 51:5
2. Paul was without sin but then died; yet he lives. — Rom 7:9-11 (alive without the law)
3. At age of accountability (reason), spirit dies. — Rom 7:7-8; Gen 2:17 (God has no favorites)
4. Christians go to Heaven because of accepting Jesus. — John 3:3; Eph 2:8
5. Christians do not go to Heaven because of works. — Eph 2:9
   Works don't get you into Heaven.
   Works don't keep you out of Heaven.
6. Therefore, the spiritual trauma of major sins does not keep a Christian out of Heaven.
7. But the first sin, which is pride, does. — Adam, Lucifer, Paul and you
8. Continued sin allows demons into a person — Examples of Christian drug and sex addicts.
   Therefore, how much more the trauma of the first sin by which a person goes to hell.

F. Christians cannot be possessed

1. God lives in you, the spirit, — 1 Cor 3:16
   so the devil has no control over your spirit.
2. Your spirit is without sin, so no demonic influence. — 1 John 3:9; 1 John 5:18
3. You belong to God, bought with a price — 1 Cor 6:20
   so the devil cannot own you, possess you.
4. But the body is just a house. — 2 Pet 1:14; 2 Cor 5:6
5. Millions of organisms live in your body including demons.
6. Demons are like termites, working best when unknown.
7. Once you know, cast them out. — Mark 16:17
8. Church without spot/wrinkle, washed by the Word. — Eph 5:26-27
